

Connect with us at Members Meeting

Your next chance to connect with Arts Council Board members is coming up at our membership meeting on Sunday, November 9. Join us at Claire's Cakes & Cafe in Monterey from 2-4 p.m. to enjoy light refreshments and conversation. This is a fantastic opportunity to network, ask questions, and learn more about the Arts Council's initiatives and projects. We hope to see you there, and we're looking forward to hearing your thoughts and ideas!

Save the date!

Save the date for the popular holiday concert! The Highlands Community Orchestra will perform Sunday, December 7 at 3 p.m. at The Highland Center. Join us for a festive afternoon of holiday music and fellowship!

Renew Your Membership!

As we look back on the past year, we are filled with gratitude. Thanks to your generosity, we were able to present concerts, exhibits, workshops, and programs that brought creativity, beauty, and inspiration to our community. As we begin a new season of programming, we invite you to renew your gift—or, if you haven't given before, to join us with a first-time contribution. Your support today will ensure that opportunities for learning, expression, and connection through the arts continue to flourish in Highland and neighboring counties.

Thank you for being part of our community of supporters. Together, we make art happen! Visit our website to donate online, or mail your gift:

WELCOME TO OUR TEAM

Rachel Camacho

Program & Event Coordinator

Rachel Camacho is a Bath County native and a lifelong performer. Rachel has worked extensively in theatre, film, and television. Her screen credits include Wish You Well (2013), When Ghosts Attack (2013), House of Horrors: Kidnapped (2014), and Crossing Streets (2016), along with work on major productions such as HBO's Veep, Hulu's The Handmaid's Tale, and Marvel's Captain America.

In addition to her work in the arts, Rachel serves as Executive Director of the Bath County Chamber of Commerce, where she continues to champion local growth and community collaboration. She is passionate about bringing the arts to rural communities and believes deeply in the importance of creative expression for all ages. Rachel is thrilled to step into her role as Programs Coordinator, where she hopes to continue her mission of helping art reach and enrich lives.

THANK YOU

Without the support of the following organizations, the Highland County Arts Council would not be able to provide the programming that is its hallmark.

The Virginia Commission for the Arts The National Endowment for the Arts
The Community Foundation of the Central Blue Ridge
The Little Swiss Fund The Charles Pinckney Jones Foundation
